

Hillel Magen - Curriculum Vitae

Hillel Magen is Vice President Agronomy at ICL Fertilizers (ICLF), where he manages and coordinates all the agro activities of the group. He is also a member at the Advisory Committee of the newly established Center for Fertilization and Plant Nutrition (CFPN), a joint initiative between ICLF and the Israeli Agriculture Research Organization (ARO). Hillel is also the Director of the International Potash Institute (IPI), Switzerland. He is with the fertilizer industry for more than 20 years. Prior to joining the industry, he was an extension officer and member at few national committees in Israel. A native of Israel, he holds a M.Sc. degree in Soil Science and Agronomy from the Hebrew University of Jerusalem.