

Tammy Erann Soussan is an international training development expert with 20 years' experience of working for Israel's Agency for International Development Cooperation (MASHAV). Specializing in capacity building, training, extension methods, and Gender in Development, Tammy has designed and implemented countless training programs and activities in various agricultural and rural development themes for trainees from all over the world, conducted in Israel and in Africa.

From 2013-2017 Tammy served as MASHAV's expert and project coordinator in Senegal.

She is currently the Head of the French Division in MATC – MASHAV's Agricultural Training Center located in Kibbutz Shefayim.