

Dr. Gal Yaacobi is managing the research and development segments of biopesticides, biostimulants and the Sterile Insect Technique (SIT) in BioBee. He has more than 15 years of experience in field R&D in open and covered crops, including the use of biological pest control. Dr. Yaacobi is an acknowledged expert for biocontrol using the Sterile Insect Technique, teach international courses and advise international SIT projects. Dr. Yaacobi has gained vast experience in funded incorporated international industrial R&D programs in the field of environmentally-friendly arthropod pest biocontrol.